2nd Berlin PhD Conference in Economics

Berlin, July 6 - 8, 2026

We are delighted to announce the 2nd Berlin PhD Conference in Economics, taking place from July 6 to July 8, 2026.

The conference aims to provide a platform for PhD students from all over the world to get together and discuss their research. It is an exceptional opportunity to receive feedback on your work and connect with fellow researchers. The conference consists of two parallel workshops, divided by fields:

Applied Microeconomics

Keynotes: Esmée Zwiers & Simon Jäger
Venue: WZB Berlin Social Science Center

Micro Theory and Behavioral Economics

Keynotes: Jeanne Hagenbach & Botond Kőszegi
Venue: Hertie School

The three-day program of each workshop involves seminar presentations, poster sessions, and invited keynotes by renowned researchers of the respective field. Application and attendance is restricted to one workshop per participant. There will be opportunities to connect with participants of both workshops.

We welcome submission of either papers or extended abstracts. To offer a platform for early-career researchers, we only accept submissions from current PhD students (at time of submission) with junior co-authors who obtained their PhD no earlier than October, 2021. Applications are encouraged from across the world. There is no conference fee and conference meals and accommodation will be covered for all participants.

Submission deadline: January 25, 2026

Deadline extension: January 30, 2026
