

CALL FOR PAPERS FOR POSTDOCS AND JUNIOR PROFESSORS

BSE Workshop at the University of Potsdam

Organizers: Shushanik Margaryan, Thomas Siedler and Luca Stella

We are soliciting papers for the first Postdocs/Junior Professors Workshop across institutions of the Berlin School of Economics.

The workshop's focus is broad, covering empirical economic research across topics in labor, health, education, development economics, and demography. The workshop will last two days. Each presentation is to be followed by a discussion from a designated BSE member. The workshop aims to foster new connections among (still) early career researchers with common interests in empirical economic research.

Date: October 13-14, 2022

Location: University of Potsdam, Campus Griebnitzsee

Format: In-person

Please submit a full paper draft (or an extended abstract) to margaryan@uni-potsdam.de by September 23, 2022. Decisions will be sent by September 28, 2022. There are no workshop fees. We look forward to receiving your submissions.
